Dear Barry:

Thank you so much for all that you did to help us through our electrical crisis of last summer. When the Washington District of Columbia Jewish Community Center's electrical panels failed and we suffered considerable costs and losses you were there with advise, ability and experience to see us through what was a most difficult time. Your willingness to help and provide professional services in working with our insurance companies to see that we were fully compensated helped the Center recover. Additionally, your suggestions on coverage that will protect us more fully, was very helpful. Your commitment to helping a community agency was greatly appreciated.

Thank you and please extend our thanks to Jeff Pence and the others in your firm.

Sincerely,

Arna Meyer Mickelson
Executive Director
